counsel, guidance and friendship,
we, the board of editors, in behalf of the school, do dedicate the

VESPERTINE, 1939

*Harvey L.
Fassett*

We, the graduating class of 1939, take this opportunity to bid a formal farewell to Harvey L. Fassett, former principal of Barringer Evening High School, under whose patient and quiet guidance we spent more than three-fourths of our educational period.

Mr. Fassett was born in Mehoopany, Pennsylvania, and acquired his training at Keystone Academy, Columbia University, New York University; received degrees of A.B. and M.S. at Bucknell University and A.M. degree at Cornell. He was named principal of Barringer Evening High School in 1933, a post which he held until June 1938, when he retired. Previous to his office at Barringer Evening High School, Mr. Fassett had been head of the mathematics department in South Side High School for twenty years. Upon his retiring from Barringer, Mr. Fassett was appointed by Mayor Ellenstein to the Board of Education.

We can look back with a feeling of highest regard for our former principal. To us all he was an inspiration, and his foremost thoughts were always for the welfare of the students who attended his school; that these ambitious young people might secure the proper training to enter higher institutions of learning.

During Mr. Fassett's five years at Barringer Evening High School many changes for the improvement of the school and students took place, owing to his untiring zeal.

And so, today, as we who spent so many years under his generous guidance are about to take our leave of these familiar halls of study, we pause a moment to reflect and say a very sincere "thank you," to the man who helped us weather so many days, both clear and cloudy. Our memory of him shall always be of the best and lasting kind; may he remember our good points and overlook our one-time unpremeditated misdemeanors.

OUR PRINCIPAL

To whom we express our gratitude and appreciation for the constant useful advice he has readily offered, for the interest he has taken in preparing us for our life in present-day society, and for inspiring us to greater heights by making us conscious of our obligations towards the future world which is ours.

ALMA MATER

Wrapped in evening's peaceful shadows
When the day is done,
Nestling in the twilight splendor
Of a setting sun,
Thus we see and shall remember
Beautiful, serene
Barringer our Alma Mater
Glorious the scene.
Sons of toil and daily labor
Seeking truth and light,

In thy halls are we united
Winging upward flight,
Pride of worldly fame and fortune,
Joys of laurels new
Shall not dim our love and honor
Ever to thee due.
We salute thee, singing proudly,
Voices one proclaim
Barringer, our Alma Mater,
Dear to us thy name.

THE SENIORS WAY BACK WHEN! EXTRACTS FROM THE OWL

The following are Personals, taken from the back issues of The Owl and featuring those who are now graduating.

November, 1935 . . . MIRIAM BENEDICK must spend all her salary on candy and gum . . . Good-looking EDDIE JENSEN tells all the girls just what he thinks of them . . . AL (SCOTTY) CONNOR is still climbing steadily to the top in classes . . . PHILIP MOSIAS wears ice-skating socks to school each night . . . Why so cold, Evelyn? . . . See BLANCHE WEIL for news of the days . . . Who helps MINNIE NISIVOCIA to get those high marks? . . .

December, 1935 . . . Did you notice ELIZABETH HARI and JOE OLIVIERA dancing together all night at the Senior's big affair? . . .

February, 1936 . . . Have you heard that ED LEWIS takes a good-looking girl home each night, and that she is not the real girl friend? . . . JOHN FURTA and BERTHA MILLER seem—oh, you know what I mean . . .

March, 1936 . . . PHIL "RED" MOSIAS can be found wherever there are any girls around.

April, 1936 . . . Everyone seems to bathe in LAURIE MANGO'S dazzling smile . . . Always in a hurry, having no place to go and all night to get there, yet always in a hurry . . . Mr. Susskind, Margaret Murray and MARIE SOROKOLIT.

October, 1936 . . . AL BOGART of Room 67 seems to be lost when Mary is not in school . . . MARIE DE LEO is developing a mind for science . . .

February, 1937 . . . Notice Edythe Giordano's hats . . . and MINNIE NISIVOCIA'S outfits . . . We don't know it, but MARIE DE LEO took a swing at AL (FRENCHY) BOGART during Science class one evening, and Frenchy didn't show up the next night . . . Can it be Sally Finnegan we see ED LEWIS with at the end of the third period? . . .

March, 1937 . . . Pat Guarino used to walk Gerry home . . . ROCCO VITELLO does the honors now . . . BILL ROMANELLO, the man without a past, spends precious minutes with a cute miss in 65.

March, 1937 . . . At the dance, MINNIE didn't wear her Scotch outfit, but she had the fellows around just the same . . . CHRISTINE (TINY) LESSA has a fine voice, but was not given the right opportunity at the recent dance.

THE SENIORS WAY BACK WHEN

April, 1937 . . . WILHELMINA (BILLY) STANINGER causes many admiring "ahs" when she collects absentee lists during the third period . . . And JEAN LA SCALA is the name of that other attractive miss collecting the same . . . CLARA PODLAS' new curls are so ducky . . . MARIE SOROKOLIT claims to be a man-hater and then she attends bachelor club meetings . . . MARIE DE LEO has finally acquired a scientific mind?

May 18, 1937 . . . The demure lassies, LORINDA MANGO and Vera Ventre danced together . . . are you slipping girls, or weren't there enough fellas to go around? . . .

June, 1937 . . . The Misses JENNY ROSELLE and CONNIE SCEPPAGUERCIO certainly have their share of male admirers—they are where the males congregate.

October, 1937 . . . Can you remember way back when JOE (SHORTY) HAGER was knee-high to a grass-hopper? . . . The gabber's prize goes to Mary Testa with CLARA PODLAS running a close second.

November, 1937 . . . Ruth Dublin and MARY HEFFERON get a ride home every night . . . RITA HEALY has a list of male admirers that long—give some of the other girls a break, will you boys? . . . Why girls leave home—consult MARIE SOROKOLIT . . . FLETCHER SMITH is always mumbling adjectives—pertaining to whom, Fletcher?

December, 1937 . . . CHARLES SAVICH and a pretty brunette from West Side Night can be seen each Saturday nite . . . at the Dreamland skating rink . . . an ideal setting for a perfect romance . . . And now we know why CHARLIE (McCARTHY) METZGER wears a hat—According to his bosom pal, the hairs that adorn that like-like facsimile of a hat-rack are accounted for . . . and sadly misnumbered . . . METZGER, by the way, is the original ventriloquist's dummy.

January, 1938 . . . Ira Katz and RUTH OHAUS are inseparable . . . WALTER KUTSOP'S amber "two-by-four" run-way has been appropriately dubbed, "The Puddle Jumper" . . . since it has brakes, but they only operate when the thing is in the garage.

February, 1938 . . . RAY GORNKOWICZ has another girl . . . who is she Ray? . . . Our idea of a quiet, unassuming nature hiding the proverbial great mind—ROBERT BRANDON.

March, 1938 . . . Add familiar similes: As wistful as IRENE MARTIN when you mention Billy or roller skates . . . as dignified as ETHEL ANDREWS.

April, 1938 . . . NORMA BLACKMAN receives a lot of attention in 36 . . . perhaps it is because of her red hair . . . CHRISTINE LESSA'S winning smile serves its purpose . . . By the way, did you ever see ROCCO VITELLO dash for the phone booth immediately after a call . . . P. S. he has yet to get his first nickel . . .

May, 1938 . . . IRENE GEREMIA finds it quite difficult to sit still in first period typing class, after talking to Rudy, her new heart throb—what's wrong with Sir Walter Raleigh, Irene? . . . JULE MEGARO offering a boy a ride home in her Ford—it won't be long now . . . JOE HAGER, are you really afraid of the dark, or are you lonesome?

June, 1938 . . . IRENE MARTIN is quite sweet on what Service Boy? . . . JULE MEGARO can almost toast hot dogs.

October, 1938 . . . JOE DEVINE is out of the social swim this term . . . Evidence indicates that a foreign language is monopolizing his time. The girl with the haunting reminiscent smile . . . ALBA NAPPI . . .

CLARA PODLAS is not her usual verbose self . . . is it because you haven't gotten acquainted with the students around you? . . . Conspicuous for her absence at recent club meetings is MARIE SOROKOLIT . . . FLORENCE FIGLIUOLO will soon don the cap and apron (no, not as a waitress, but a nurse) . . . ANN DI PASQUALE and ROSE FARANO seem to be having a difficult time in getting to their first period class at 7:15—and a more difficult time in suppressing their girlish giggles . . . Could we have been mistaken or did we see PHILIP "RED" MOSIAS in Bambergers' domestic department, wrapped up in towels?

November, 1938 . . . MARIE SCHUMACHER is going to break more than one heart in her chosen career of nursing . . . FLETCHER SMITH of 77 seems jealous of Ruth O'Brien's Sir Walter Raleigh . . . FRANK GUARINO ace-publicity man for senior class, puts himself over big in his history class . . . JEAN CICONE—No 1 chatterbox . . . Inseparable . . . VIOLA KEHM and her chewing gum.

December, 1938 . . . Just to keep Mr. Burhman from dying of shock, EMMETT OWENS never gives the correct answer in class . . . ELEANOR GERARD and MARY (not Minnie) NISIVOCCIA are well on the way to establish a date bureau in this school . . . Why does FRANK GUARINO persist in heckling ANN TUFARELLO in room 37? . . . Another addition to Gum-Chewers' Local is WILHELMINA STANINGER . . . A romance is flourishing between Dorothy Scull and JOHNNY SCHWARTZ . . . JOE DEVINE and the Italian language have come to the parting of the ways . . . EVA SIMMONS is the tall, quiet type, and, says someone, charming.

January, 1939 . . . EDWARD OPRYSK has also joined the Library Addicts . . . CARL WOLLNER hates to see his name in the Owl, especially in the Personals . . .

February, 1939 . . . Everyone misses hard-working, sensible ROCCO VITELLO from the Service Squad . . . Does MIRIAM BENEDICK spend all her salary on flowers? . . . HATTIE JENKINS is well on her way at head of senior class as poet laureate . . . What will JOSEPH OLIVIERA do when MARIE SCHUMACHER graduates in January? . . . When it comes to male escorts, IRENE GEREMIA believes that there's "safety in numbers." Another addition to the Gum-Chewers' Local is ELEANOR GERARD . . .

February, 1939 . . . Add Personality Girls: VIOLA KEHM, ELAINE MOTTILA, ANN TUFARELLO and BLANCHE WEIL . . . Who pinned the "senior hostess ribbon on TOM BROWN at the last dance? . . . Who is the post-graduate who drives AURORA LIVOLSI home each night? . . . A gentleman who consents to hear himself talk—SAVINO BUCCI.

March, 1939 . . . Another addition to the Gum-Chewers' Local is JEAN LA SCALA . . . WILHELMINA STANINGER proved to be a capable hostess at the Girls' Service dance . . . Mr. Kappstatter picked up a live wire when he found JOHN WELSHER, and he gets plenty of shocks . . .

April, 1939 . . . The pay-off is JOHN SCHWARTZ giving the Hitler salute at assembly, even if he didn't shout, "Heil!" . . . Nominations for the month . . . smilingest Lady . . . LORINDA MANGO . . . Hardest Worker . . . TOM BROWN . . . Quietest Go-Getter . . . JOHN WELSHER . . . MARIE SOROKOLIT is developing into a magnetic orator . . . ART FORCELLA went into the outfield to catch flies and caught cold that first Saturday . . . Let it here be known that SADYE STEIN is sill Sadye Stein . . .

Last Will and Testament of the Class of June 1939

We, the graduating class of Barringer Evening High School of the City of Newark, of the State of New Jersey, being of sound mind, do hereby make and proclaim this to be our last will and testament, to become effective after our departure from the sacred precincts of this institution of wealth in Reading, 'Riting and 'Rithmetic. We solemnly bequeath the following to our many heirs and assigns.

I. We give, devise and bequeath to our principal, Mr. Roscoe P. Conkling, and to the members of the faculty, our sincere gratitude for their patience, guidance and advice during our stay at Barringer Evening High School.

II. To the coming Seniors we reluctantly relinquish our Auditorium, Room 31 and the use of the Gymnasium for their dances, made famous by our distinguished presence.

III. To the entire student body we leave our various clubs and organizations, and hope, but doubt, that they will thrive without our co-operation.

IV. To those who shall have for their home room 61, (sixty-one) we do give the special desk, the fifth one from the front, in the second row from the door, distinguished by having been especially honored by our esteemed editor, Filomena Nisivoccia.

V. We give, devise and bequeath to the Science Club members the thrilling expeditions to High Point, Branch Brook Park and South Mountain Reservation, for the following purposes, to wit:—distinguishing members of the feathery kingdom; routing out pollywogs; searching for rare minerological and botanical specimens; waylaying the innocent rattlesnake; and vainly searching for tropical fish in northern waters.

VI. To the next Senior class we bequeath our autographed textbooks with the answers scrawled within them.

VII. We give, devise and bequeath to the Social Problems Club, room 36 for the purpose of holding meetings. May the said meetings be peaceful and calm in the future. We do also bequeath and devise to the Social Problems Club our oratorical talents, viz: silvery tongues, mellifluous voices, elegant gestures and unwavering poise.

VIII. To all loyal Barringerites we do solemnly bequeath our school publications, The Owl, The Researcher and The Library Lamp.

IX. To all the students, and freshmen especially, we do solemnly bequeath the high distinction of being arrested in the corridors, by our beloved Boys Service Club members for walking around in the wrong direction, and also do we unhesitatingly bequeath to the students the honor of inventing new invectives for such action taken by the arresters.

X. We do also graciously bequeath to the librarian, Miss Fannie Greenberg, a handy oak gavel for the single, express and obvious purpose of striking the surface of her desk a sturdy blow to arouse dormant students, stimulate interest, create silence out of noise, frighten the timid, tame the belligerent and generally call attention to herself.

XI. To all those who commute, excepting the owners of "Lizzies" we bequeath to them the use of the Clifton (Toonerville) Bus, and to those unfortunates who live in the downtown section, we leave the Bloomfield Bus.

XII. We give, devise and bequeath to the Owl Staff the "front page" complex; the mastery of juggling headlines and spotting the human interest story beneath the commonplace incident; the industry of "scooping" a news item; all of which is known as "The Art of Writing for Print"; in addition, we, the seniors leave you Mr. Gilbert Chambers and Mr. Milton Kapstatter, faculty advisers, to harass, torment and otherwise annoy.

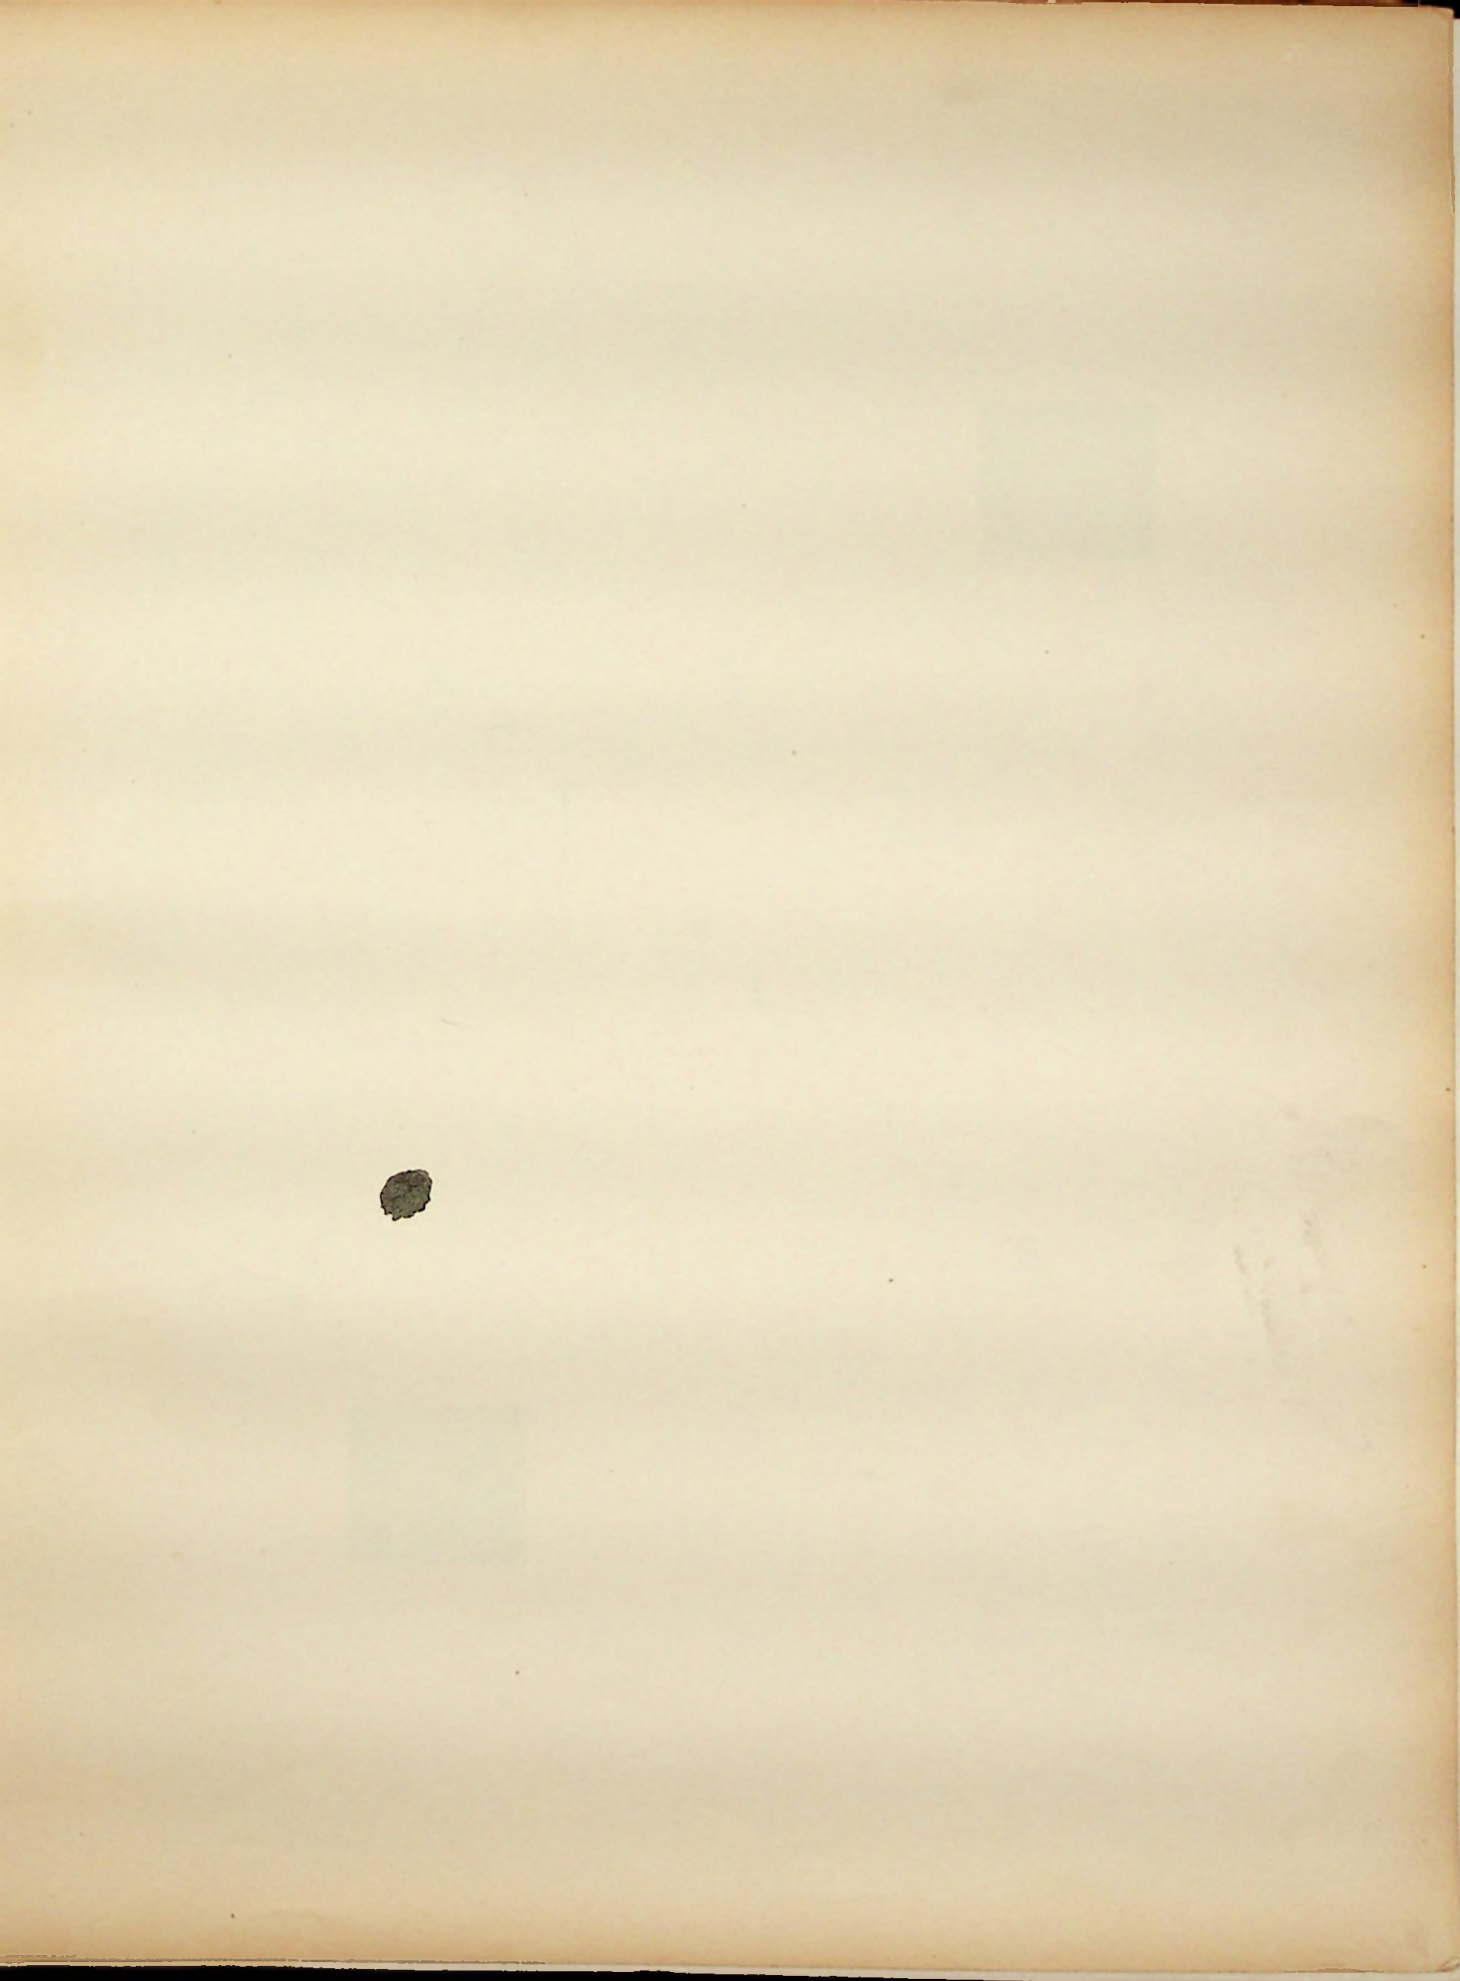

XIII. To all Barringerites, we do joyfully bequeath all our school paraphernalia, including the curriculum and report cards with A's, in order to set before the students our example of strenuous and successful labor.

XIV. Those possessions of ours which we have not mentioned, we generously bequeath to the prospective Seniors.

We nominate and appoint Mr. Roscoe P. Conkling to be our sole executor. In witness thereof, we have set our seal this tenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine.

The Owl Staff

The OWL had its most successful school year in 1938-39. For each of its nine issues, circulation averaged more than 600. Since each copy is read by more than one student, this indicated that practically every student in school was an OWL reader this year.

The complete staff of the 1938-39 OWL included:

Editor ..... FILOMENA NISIVOCIA

Associate Editors: Richard Hood, Jule Megaro

Sales Manager ..... Dell Schuster

Advertising Manager ..... Jack Levinsky

Circulation Manager ..... Meyer Denes

Business Manager ..... John Welsher

Asst. Business Manager: Richard Schuyler

Business Secretary ..... Marjorie Springer

Editorial Secretary ..... Rose Reider

Editorial Staff: Irving Tillman, Lenore Merola, Armand Rotonda, Harry Gerber, Paul Fattaruso.

Advertising Salesmen: Ann Vitale, Charles Schadt, C. Casciano, Mollie Appel, Patsy Di Marco.

Editorial—Mr. Chambers

Business—Mr. Kappstatter

"Il Circolo Di Coltura Italiana"

The Italian Club came into being primarily to enrich classroom activities usually classified as the "cultural phases" of language study. Through regular attendance at club meetings the students gain a better understanding of Italy's contributions to art, music, world literature and science.

SPANISH CLUB

Dedicated to the practical application of the "good neighbor" policy through a knowledge of, appreciation of, understanding of, and contact with the Spanish and Latin-American cultures and civilizations.

"Le Cercle Français" THE FRENCH CIRCLE

The objectives of the French Club are to create and foster an interest in the language, customs and culture of the French speaking people; and promote educational and social activities that develop this interest.

SCIENCE CLUB

The Science Club sponsors trips to museums, the planetarium, and the zoo; outdoor nature trips; lectures and demonstrations by teachers, students and outside experts who discuss and demonstrate various aspects of the topics considered.

It aims to acquaint members with the world of science; to enrich the member's daily life with new scientific facts that effect his very existence; to provide a leisure time activity in one of the more practical subjects in the curriculum—science.

BOYS' SERVICE CLUB

It is the purpose of the Boys' Service Club to help keep the school businesslike and orderly; to develop character, personality, and leadership in its members; to give members experience in the use of authority.

GIRLS' SERVICE CLUB

The Girls' Service Club works in conjunction with the Boys' Service Club to help maintain order in the school. It sponsors social gatherings; outside speakers of prominence to discuss pertinent questions of the day; trips to such places of interest as the Museum, Presbyterian Hospital, etc., and welfare work.

COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club has a dual function:

1. To discuss the vocational opportunities in the various occupations.
2. To help students to raise their scholastic standing.

During the past year it has had as guest speakers men prominent in the fields of Journalism, Merchandising, and Civil Service.

SOCIAL PROBLEMS CLUB

It is the purpose of the Social Problems Club to help members become aware of important social and economic problems facing the world; to develop the habit of critical thinking that is so necessary to good citizenship, and to help them arrive at an intelligent solution of the problems of the day.

BASEBALL TEAM

The baseball team's schedule called for two big games with Barringer Day High School and Lincoln High School of Jersey City. It opened the season by winning three and losing two to semi-pro teams from Newark, Passaic and Jersey City. Mike Crecca is captain. Mr. Chambers is coach.

TRACK TEAM

The track season of 1939 was by far the most successful that we have had for several years. These eight boys on the team showed their mettle in the Metropolitan Evening High School Championship held at Jersey City in which they won trophies for the school and eleven medals for themselves.

BASKETBALL

The team aims primarily to develop health and fun and an understanding of and liking for the sport. The highlight of the season was the faculty -varsity game in the Boys' Gym which ended the first basketball season at B. E. H. S. in seven years. Mr. Springer is coach.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

With the assistance of the Library Council, the possibilities of the School Library can be carried into tangible forms. To the members of this group, there is a satisfaction in the knowledge of their own civic activity, in their acquaintance with books and a library, and in the practicableness of this interest.

BOXING CLUB

The Boxing Club aims solely at developing skill and health, and enjoying the sport.

Ray Gornickewicz, welter-weight won a boxing-glove watchfob by knocking out his opponent in the second round of a three-round amateur bout in April. Mr. Chambers is coach.

GOLF

The Golf Team was started by a group of students interested in improving their game. Practice was held in the boys' gym on Tuesday and Thursday nights. The group is looking forward to a big year next term with new equipment.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

The Photography Club aims to teach members how to take good pictures; to teach members how to develop and print their own films; to develop feeling and appreciation for good pictures; to develop appreciation of the beauty of one's immediate surroundings.

Ray Gornikowicz has made a name
 Yet modestly hides behind his fame.
 A technical knockout he scored in the ring.
 Let us now join—his praises to sing.
 Eleanor Gerard's a lively young miss,
 Always talking and laughing, you've always known this.

As for John Welsher "Still water runs deep"
 Many the rewards in life he will reap.

Bernard Millman, a student bombastic
 Expounded on subjects unscholastic,
 At times arrogant, witty, sarcastic,
 He never spared those gestures gymnastic.

Alba Nappi has looks, eyes and poise,
 Things that attract B.E.H.S. boys.

A thinker is our own Fred Freed,
 He honors truth, a virtue by deed.

Filomena Nisivoccia's a writer of note,
 Many Books and magazines contain tales she wrote,
 She excels in studies and is a good sport,
 If you doubt us, look at her report.

When George Dutko's laugh begins to ring,
 E'en the rafters above commence to sing.

Class Pessimist by all selected

Is Irving Cohen—sad and dejected

While the class Optimist is our own Tom Brown
 Who sailed through school with ne'er a frown.

A student is Sorokolit, Marie by name,
 Who in the future will surely win fame.

Phil Mosias is our "model" son
 For a nice dresser he is one.

When he steps out in a suit "for hire"
 He looks like something out of Esquire.

Everyone likes her, her name is Mary
 Kocserba, her last name, and pleasant is she.

With Alex Connor 'twas to do or to die,
 He shouldered his burden with scarcely a sigh.

Charles Macaluso, Child of Scorn
 Grew lean while he assailed the seasons,
 Charlie longed for A's and B's
 But the teachers had good reasons.

Many have heard of William Romanello,
 For his talent, he is noted, you know.

Kate Guifrita, always friendly, calm and kind,
 Another like her 'tis hard to find,
 A Senior Senator of her class,
 Ethel Andrews' a truly wonderful lass.

Oh, John Furta is a man of affairs,
 And a reputation high he bears.

*Her name is Dyne, Marguerite,
Always happy, kind and sweet,
For her winning ways she is noted,
Now you know why she was promoted.*

*Frank Ianetti's ever been a sport,
Since he entered B.E.H.S's port.*

*Lorinda Mango, a well-known coquette,
At breaking hearts is a seasoned vet.
Though she is pleasant, witty and fair,
We caution you to be aware.*

*Grover Allen is devoted to art's cause,
So he is worthy of applause.*

*Walter Kutsop is known as class flirt,
Though he says he cares not for maid.
Yet, we're sure a blonde lass can divert
His attention from studies, we're afraid.*

*If Mary Nisivoccia you would find,
just follow the noise,
And don't forget she's fond of the boys.*

*Joe Devine, an amorous young swain,
Wooded the Italian language in vain,
Alas poor Joe loved—In good sooth
The course of true love ne'er did run smooth.*

*Of Irene Martin we are quite proud,
For when she sketches she draws a crowd.
Take a look at our Hall of Fame
T'was done by Martin, Irene by name.*

*A student, Joe Seltsam, of preoccupied air
Is always seen with Ginger Bendall fair.*

*The lily maid, Elaine,
Mottilla her last name,
Not only a pleasant sight,
Also winsome and polite.*

*Rocco Vitello is one who works hard
'Tis virtue has its own reward.*

*Genevieve Whyte of the golden hair,
Is ever gentle, sweet and fair,
While Anne Tufarello is dark and petite,
Reserved and shy, and always so neat.*

*John Schwartz is a very fine lad,
Always eager to jest and to play,
Should he ever be early his teacher'll go mad,
For he's last in his class every day.*

*Rose Farano for all has smiles,
Although some mistake them for wiles,
While the girl with the irresistible line,
Is none other than our own Sadye Stein.*

*Since these quips have been written in fun
And no sarcasm of phrase is intended,
We hope we hear protests from none
And pray that all cranks are commended.*

Luck and happiness
to a sweet fellow
Lucy Dittoria

IT'S NOT TOO EARLY

The sooner youth acquires worth-while information the better he will be equipped for his journey through life.

One of his most valuable assets in future years will be his life insurance protection.

He should feel free to consult his elders on this subject.

Then he will know what he needs when the time comes to buy it.
